FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Northridge Prep Student Accepted to Renowned Arts Camp

Christopher Carbone '17, credits his Camp admission to the extensive theatre experience he has had at Northridge Prep.

Rapp, cartoonist Cathy Guisewite and many more. Approximately ten percent of the nation's professional orchestra musicians have roots at Interlochen and the alumni community has been awarded 89 Grammy Awards.

Carbone credits his Camp admission to the extensive theatre experience he has had as a Northridge Prep student. He played the role of Mazeppa in Northridge's Fall 2009 production of The Thwarting of Baron Bolligrew. In Spring 2010, Carbone appeared as the lead in the school's production of Oliver. Most recently, Carbone was cast as Mim in the Fall 2011 production of The Sword in the Stone.

Interlochen Arts Camp attracts students, faculty and staff from all 50 U.S. states and more than 40 countries. These 3,000 artists fill Interlochen's northwoods campus with an explosion of creativity. Student-artists learn from world-class instructors and produce hundreds of presentations each summer in dance, theatre, creative writing, visual arts, music and film.

In addition to hundreds of performances, presentations and readings by young artists, Interlochen brings leading artists and performers to the northern Michigan campus. In recent years, guest artists have included Joshua Bell, Olga Kern, Bob Dylan, Van Cliburn, Willie Nelson, B.B. King, Guster, Lyle Lovett, Trace Adkins, Branford Marsalis, the Moody Blues and many more.

Northridge Prep is a nationally ranked college preparatory school for young men in grades 6–12 in Niles, Illinois. To learn more about Northridge Prep, contact Vu Nguyen at marketing@northridgeprep.org.
